

Regal Home Inspections, LLC

Find of the Week 5/25/2019

Horizontal cracks indicate structural movement. If you can see a horizontal crack from the inside that means there is or was a force outside that caused the foundation wall to move inward. When found these are identified as a material defect and always referred to a structural engineer for further evaluation.

